MARK SMITH & JAMIE THOMSON

THE ULTIMATE WEAPON

The fate of Earth lies in your hands! As special agent Falcon, you have just been alerted on the morning timeline changes, including the fatal long-dead world of Medusa. Once it had been an enormous history-planet, where teams of robot warriors assembled the human story of space warfare... until a terrible nuclear catastrophe reduced it to a tangled ruin of rock and metal. Now a renegade Time Lord is using his powers to wipe out that past disaster, and make Medusa's once more the meticulously ordered universe has ever seen! Time is short – whether your advantage is slowing the course of history or preventing it from the Time Lord's ultimate weapon!
